J.&H. Railroad Will Be Offered Oct. 4th At Foreclosure Sale

Special Master Will Hold Sale at Station at Virginia, 10 A.M.

The Jacksonville & Havana railroad which its receiver some time ago petitioned to be abandoned, will be offered at a foreclosure sale to be held October 4 at Virginia. The right-of-way, all buildings and equipment of the line will be offered to the highest bidder.

Attorney W. St. John Wines of Springfield, special master under the foreclosure proceedings, has announced that the auction will take place at 10 a. m. on October 4 at the so-called platform of the station building at Virginia.

Elmer Naffziger, receiver for the railroad, was in Jacksonville yesterday on business connected with the impending sale. Whether other railroad companies are interested in taking over the line and will submit bids is not known.

The sale will be held pursuant to a decree of foreclosure entered in U. S. District Court Sept. 1, in a consolidated cause pending in court entitled "The Chase National Bank of the City of New York and Samuel Armstrong as Trustees, Complainants, against Jacksonville & Havana Railroad company, et al. Defendants."

Official notices of the sale list the property in five parcels, with legal descriptions of all real estate owned by the company.
